2. A number of factors prevented the parties from conducting the joint site inspection within the time limit specified by General Order No. 56. First, the parties have already conducted a joint meeting at the site, for settlement purposes, between their respective consultants. As a result of the meeting that has already occurred, the parties have narrowed the issues considerably.

- 4. Finally, defendant Bon Air's consultant, Kim Blackseeth, was not available on April 18, 2008, the last date per General Order No. 56, for the inspection. Mr. Blackseeth's next date of availability is April 28. The parties have agreed to conduct the joint site inspection on that date.
- 5. No other request for extension of the joint site stipulation have been made by the parties to this action.
- 6. The parties request a 14 day extension for the extension required under paragraph 3 of General Order No. 56.
- 7. The requested extension would have delay the schedule for this case only slight, for two weeks

I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of California that the foregoing is true and correct and that this declaration was executed on April 18, 2008, at San Francisco, California.
